FROM LEGEND TO REALITY

The legend of the City of the Moon has been passed from generation to generation. The story says that it is an indestructible town that jealously holds its many secrets.

It has been said that if you tried to leave this town once you have entered it, a symbol would be etched upon your forehead and your memories would be lost forever.

But, who believes in these far-fetched tales?

The path which leads to this legendary city lies somewhere in the City of Mists.

Present day...

One man is about to return to the City of Mists.

How much further is my journey?... I'm so tired... Where must I go to regain my memory? I hope someone recognizes me in the next city I go to.
